

Revenue For Municipal Bus Lines To Jump Due To New Schedules

Revenue for the Torrance Municipal Bus department will show a marked jump as a result of the installation of the heavily patronized additional schedules to the Los Angeles line, according to Bus Manager C. Z. Ward.

The revenue has been hovering in the $12,000 area since the improvement in schedules last summer, and the total for December was $12,382.09.

The service to Los Angeles was increased by seven trips on Jan. 20. This is an increase of approximately one-third. While the revenue will not increase in that proportion immediately, it will within the period of six months to a year, it was said.

Revenue from local lines is averaging a little more than 10 percent of the revenue of the Los Angeles lines.

In December, the Torrance, Lomita, Waverly, Harbor City, Harbor Hills, 203rd st. and Pueblo lines brought in a total of $1,413.91.

The Tenth and Hill st. agency turned in a total of $4,909.90 during the month of December.

Beacon Drug Co. revenue was $2,736.40.

Fare box revenue amounted to $4,302.59; commutation books, $103.06; additional tickets, $39.25; and miscellaneous revenue 240.90.

LICENSING OF COIN OPERATED GAMES BY COUNTY SEN

The Board of Supervisors has acted to put the "clutch" on coin-operated amusement games in unincorporated county territory when the body ordered the counsel counsel to draft an ordinance subjecting such devices to a $12 yearly license fee.

Machines affected will include slot-ball games, claw machines and similar games of skill.

COUNTY SMOKE CONTROL AID DUE TO 45 CITIES

The 45 cities of Los Angeles county may receive technical aid from the county government in the campaign to control smoke and fumes without cost to the municipality.

Supervisor John Anson Ford said today that such a plan may become effective unless county officials run up against some legal snag.

December was high, due to extra trips for the Christmas holiday rush. It totalled 36,120 miles.

Lumber License Revocation Up To Supervisors

Whether or not H. R. Bromley should be deprived of his second hand lumber dealer's license will be determined Feb. 5 when he is scheduled to appear before the Board of Supervisors.

Bromley, whose place of business is located south of Sepulveda blvd. on Avalon blvd., in the Wilmington district, had been charged by residents of the area with using public streets and alleys in the storage of his damage lumber and failing to comply with health regulations with special reference to the breeding of rats.

Supervisor Raymond V. Darby stated today that he had asked that Bromley's hearing be postponed so that both sides to the controversy could present a complete case.

VETERANS' SURPLUS

Information for helping Veterans obtain priorities on government surplus materials came under new management Monday, Jan. 28, when the War Assets Corporation took it over from the Smaller War Plants Corporation, under Presidential directive. For information call Veterans Service Center, 2300 W. Carson st., Torrance. Telephone Torrance 2200.

Commerce Dept. To Handle Small Plants Answers

The U. S. Department of Commerce, 1031 So. Broadway, hereafter will handle the information service for small business, Hector G. Haight, head of the War Assets Corporation, announced late yesterday.

The department also henceforth will handle the extension of loans to veterans who wish to engage in business, Haight said.

Both functions hitherto have been exercised by the Smaller War Plants Corporation.

Under presidential directive, Haight's organization recently took over the disposition of surplus war properties from the general management of Reconstruction Finance Corporation. It was being carried on through the Smaller War Plants Corporation.

Gardena Group Seeks Ousting Of Card Rooms

An intensive campaign to obtain the signatures of 1000 registered voters in 15 days to the initiative petition calling for the ousting of card clubs from the city of Gardena was launched last week by the Committee Opposed to Gambling in Gardena and the Gardena Ministerial association.

While less than 400 names, or 10 per cent of the number of registered voters, are required to insure the sufficiency of the petition, the drive for 1000 names is being made to allow a wide margin of safety and to make a showing of strength, Dr. David Lee Mounts, past president of the Ministerial association and one of the leaders of

New Faculty Members For Torrance High

Torrance High school has two new faculty members for this semester, Paul Rider and Max Feldbaum. Rider attended Occidental College, Princeton and University of California summer sessions. He formerly taught in New York State, and has been assigned to social study classes here.

Max Feldbaum attended Cornell University, Michigan State, Utah, and Rutgers University in New Jersey. He will teach in continuation school here.
